

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Tracy McHugh, TM Marketing
(262) 723-4611 or tracymchugh@elknet.net

Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva
Celebrates 7th Year on March 19 & 20, 2011

Lake Geneva, Wis.- Come for the connection and education, stay for the information and inspiration at the Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva, to be hosted at Badger High School, 220 South Street, Lake Geneva, Wis. on Saturday, March 19 and Sunday, March 20 from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. on both days. Celebrating its 7th year, the Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva will feature over 50 exhibiting practitioners, organizations and businesses and 35 educational lectures in the areas of Alternative Health & Wellness, Holistic Products, Organic Foods & Nutrition, Green Home & Healthy Life, Bodywork & Movement and Education & Empowerment. Sponsors for this year's event include: Investment Advisors International, Alternative Health Associates, Community Shoppers, Inc., Gooseberries Fresh Food Market, Nei-Turner Media Group, She Magazine and Young Living Essential Oils. The public is invited to attend. Tickets for the event are $10, which includes two-day access to all booths and educational lectures. A portion of the proceeds from the tickets will benefit SMILES, a therapeutic riding facility for adults and children with disabilities. For a complete listing of participating groups visit www.womensresourcefair.org or call (262)723-4611 for more information.

What to Expect

With a focus on going green and alternative resources, attendees can share in the wealth of information over the two days including: eco-friendly candles & products, personal fitness and yoga, samples of organic foods, all natural skin care products, chiropractic services, chair massage, life coaching, holistic pet training and foods, naturopathic health care and handmade wears from local artisans.

Fair Highlights

1. Keynote Speaker: Ben Merens

Meet Wisconsin Public Radio talk show host and author Ben Merens on Saturday, March 19 at 2 p.m. Ben will present, "People Are Dying To Be Heard: How To Listen To Others and Have Them Listen To You," a lecture focusing on listening well, being in the moment and focusing on the task at hand.

2. Paint Your Own Pottery Station

Lake Geneva's paint your own pottery store, Xpress Yourself, is presenting a paint your own pottery station at the Women's Resource Fair. On Saturday and Sunday, from 10 AM – 4PM, feel free to come paint with us! The first 50 people to paint a planter pot will receive a FREE seed packet. Minimal fee does apply.

3. Fashion Show

On Saturday at 11:45 a.m., there will be a fashion show to showcase consignment boutique items from Lake Shore fashions. They will demonstrate how simple it can be to recycle unwanted clothing and turning them into cash.

4. Cooking Demonstrations

The Badger High School Culinary ProStart students will be practicing for their national competition on Saturday and Sunday from 11 a.m. – noon. Come watch their television show style preparation of a three course meal in one hour.

5. Walworth County Job Center

Looking for a job? Need to redo your resume? Come learn resume writing tips and get help with your job search from Marci Hayden-Barr at the Walworth County Job Center on Sunday, March 20 at 11:45 a.m.

Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva

The Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva is a woman-owned cooperative directed by an Advisory Circle of community leaders. With an outstanding reputation for providing an enriching host of resources and information, the mission of the Women's Resource Fair is to give individual practitioners, non-profits and organizations that offer eco-friendly products, organic foods, alternative resources and sustainability a greater opportunity to enrich the lives of their community through the presentation of their services, products and programs and to offer a central, credible source for finding enrichment. For more information please visit www.womensresourcefair.org, or call (262) 723-4611.