

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Tracy McHugh, TM Marketing
(262) 723-4611 or tracymchugh@elknet.net

Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva
Celebrates 5th Year with Upcoming
Community Cooperative March 6 & 7, 2009

Lake Geneva, Wis.- Come for the connection and education, stay for the information and inspiration at the Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva, to be hosted at Bella Vista Suites, 335 Wrigley Drive, downtown Lake Geneva, Wis. on Friday, March 6, 11 a.m. – 6 p.m. and Saturday, March 7, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. Now in its 5th year, the Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva will feature over 40 exhibiting practitioners, organizations and businesses and 35 educational lectures in the areas of Alternative Health & Wellness, Holistic Products, Organic Foods & Nutrition, Green Home & Healthy Life, Bodywork & Movement and Education. Sponsors for this year's event include: Alternative Health Associates, Bella Vista Suites, Community Shoppers, Inc., First Banking Center, Gilbert's, Gooseberries Fresh Food Market, Moonlight Slumber Naturals, NT Media Group and WLKG. The public is invited to attend. Tickets for the event are $10, which includes two-day access to all booths and educational lectures. However, in an effort to support Walworth County food pantries, attendees can receive $5 off their ticket price by bringing in two non-perishable food items. For information call (262) 723-4611 or visit www.womensresourcefair.org.

What to Expect This Year

With a focus on going green and alternative resources, attendees can share in the wealth of information over the two days including: ways to save on energy costs, green building & remodeling, eco-friendly candles & products, personal training and yoga, samples of organic foods and wine, all natural skin care products, chiropractic services, chair massage, education on personal finance and insurance, life coaching, holistic pet training and foods, naturopathic health care and fair trade items from around the world.

NEW This Year

This year the Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva has partnered with The Association for the Prevention of Family Violence, a nonprofit organization providing help for abuse in Walworth County through shelter referrals, children's services, support groups, counseling, legal advocacy and a 24-hour help line. The APFV will be providing information about their organization and selling raffle tickets for gift baskets during the fair. All proceeds from the raffle tickets will be donated to The Association for the Prevention of Family Violence.

Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva

The Women's Resource Fair Lake Geneva is a woman-owned cooperative directed by an Advisory Circle of community leaders. With an outstanding reputation for providing an enriching host of resources and information, the mission of the Women's Resource Fair is to give individual practitioners, non-profits and organizations that offer eco-friendly products, organic foods, alternative resources and sustainability a greater opportunity to enrich the lives of their community through the presentation of their services, products and programs and to offer all women a central, credible source for finding enrichment for their lives. For more information about exhibiting or attending, please visit www.womensresourcefair.org, or call (262) 723-4611.